Bargaining Committee Update

To our Sisters and Brothers of I.B.E.W. 2067,

The Union Bargaining Committee has invited SaskPower to the negotiating table three times since the opening of the bargaining period of November 1, 2022. The Union has taken the position of bargaining in good faith in a professional manner. To date, the Union has had no success in getting SaskPower to the table or any commitment to begin talks.

The Union Bargaining Committee has a full bargaining package prepared and is ready to negotiate. We have heard your wants, needs and now frustrations on the bargaining process. The Unions is taking action to get SaskPower to the bargaining table for February.

For 2023, the Bargaining Committee is committed to regular communications to the membership on the development of the negotiations. There will be additional Power Notes sent out as things progress. Additionally, to stay informed, we encourage you to please attend your local Unit meetings. (Schedule of date, time and locations can be found on the I.B.E.W. Local 2067 website under “Events”). Member engagement in our local is critical to the success of the next contract.

In solidarity,

I.B.E.W. Local 2067 Business Office & Union Bargaining Committee
