Notice of Passing – Retired Member Allan R Waters

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

We are sad to notify you of the passing of retired member Brother Allan R Waters, who passed away on April 3, 2024.

Sent on behalf of Brother Allan's family:

"Allan R Waters

Sep. 20th, 1953 - Apr. 3rd, 2024

Allan has passed at the age of 70 after a lengthy battle with cancer.

He is survived by his wife Donna Knight-Waters, his sons; Damian (Kristen), and Shane (Chelsea). Along with numerous in-law's and relatives.

Allan was a member of IBEW2067 along with an employee of SaskPower for 40 years. He started as a steam operator in the coal plants before becoming an Electrician at Q.E. plant in Saskatoon for nearly 30 years.

He was an active member of the community both at work and in his personal time. He was an active member with the United Way throughout his employment and continued this in his personal life as a canvasser for many charities dealing with diseases and disabilities. Allan was also an active official in the Saskatchewan Amateur Football Officials Association (SAFOA) for 40 years. He will be deeply missed by those who truly knew him.

His infectious smile and sense of humor will forever live on through the memories we shared with him. Thank you to all of his fellow brothers and sisters who have reached out during this time of mourning, his family truly appreciates the kind words and stories shared. Those wishing to are asked to make donations to the Cancer Society or the St. Paul's Palliative Care Unit.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts,

The Knight-Waters"

Our thoughts and prayers are with Brother Allan's family.

In solidarity & sympathy,
